EDITOR'S NOTE

By John Eiell Domingo

Do you still remember your favorite anime when you were a kid? Do you still remember the first movie you have watched? Can you recall the title of your most favorite TV series?

Humbly presenting to you this Retrospect which was wholeheartedly published by passionate staffs of The Review. Well, it came out to be this way – the presentation of the Top 10 must watch Anime, Top 10 must watch Movies, Top 10 must watch Filipino Movies, and Top 10 must watch Movies. All of these aims to unlock the minds of the younger generation especially those who weren't aware of these kind of media entertainments.

We came up to an idea of publishing Retrospect not only to make you familiarize the trending anime, TV series or movies but also because we believe that school magazines are useful in many ways. Many students do not read books other than their text-books. Their knowledge won't increase if they do not read books.

If we are to write an article for the magazine, we must necessarily read many new books. Thus it widens our knowledge. In addition, the school magazine helps us in developing our power of writing. It increases our power of thinking also. News, Editorial, and Feature Writing is incorporated to this magazine.

As you turn the pages on, we wish that you understand our own lives, the lives of those around us and even how our society and culture operate. Arts, especially those which are presented in films or anime, gives us the ability to form lasting human connections by letting us share our experiences with each other. Can you imagine how a protagonist in an anime or movie overcomes his/her problems? Would you do the same solution as to what problems that you are facing now? It's up to you because these media entertainments were rooted from true lives of different individuals in every different kind of society we belong. Have your mind explore through the pages!

Oregairu

“When you pick the only option you have to choose from, can you really call that your own decision?”

Are you tired of watching the same old rom-com anime? If yes, then you're in the right place because Oregairu is not your typical rom-com anime. Our male character Hikigaya Hachiman isn't handsome, attractive, nor charming and actually he got rejected a lot of times to the point he turns into a pessimistic person. But still one of the reasons why I like the anime is how they dealt with their own problems and character development of each character.

Akashic Magical Bastard Instructor

“If i'm someone who runs away from trouble then what was the purpose of any of this”

Akashic Records of Bastard Magic Instructor is one heck hilarious anime I've ever watched. Don't get fooled, it looks like your typical fantasy-magic-school anime but no its not. The anime starts it slow but as soon as you reach episode 2 of the anime, promise you'll thank me why I recommend this to you guys. Our main character is Glenn Radars who is acting as a substitute teacher in Alzano Imperial Magic Academy. He appears like your generic super powerful main character but is he? His character is shrouded.

9

Danmachi

“I wanted to save you because you're you. I didn't want you to leave, because you're you. I can't find another reason. I don't need another reason to save you.”

One thing I like about this anime is how straightly forward it is. It basically follows our main character Bell struggle to become a hero he wanted to be. he's not your overpowered main character at the start. At first he was struggling to become an adventurer but sooner he met her goddess "Hestia" on which they became companion. Danmachi is far from a masterpiece but I think the premise is very good and the way the story delivers in anime is very commendable.

3 Gatsu no Lion

"The further you go, the steeper it becomes, and there won't be anyone around you."

March Comes Like a Lion is definitely one of the best anime Shaft Studio ever created. I truly love how the comedy and drama mix in the show and how cute the characters drawn are. The story starts slow but every episode has its own life lesson.

One of the assets of the show is how you can relate to the characters of the story because the anime tackles the problems in real life such as depression, anxiety, and bullying.

If you're into slice of life anime with a twist of comedy and cute girls doing cute things, then this is your show.

7

No Game No Life

"In fairy tales, when the protagonists end up in a different world, they do their best to get back home, right? But who would want to go back to a world like that?"

No Game No Life visual art is so colorful that even colorblind people can see the colors. If you have not watched this anime yet, then do yourself a favor and watch it. No Game No Life is undoubtedly one of the most enjoyable anime to date. Ever since I read the synopsis of this anime before it even starts airing I already know that it would turn into big hit. The only cons I could think is it doesn't have season 2.

Monogatari Series

"I don't know everything; I just know what I know"

Monogatari Series is the most unique anime I've ever watched when it comes to storytelling and visuals of an anime. The plot is very complex and there are a lot of dialogues on it which maybe some of people might find boring but that's what I found Monogatari Series unique. The characters of the anime are very well written and very unique on their own way every Arc's of the anime is very interesting and not boring and it will leave you a taste that you'll come back for more. Everything in Monogatari Series are connected, story, characters literally everything that what makes it one of the best and weird anime at the same time.

D-frag

*“Her Boobs turned into a bullet!
Sh-She’s Boobzila!”*

D-frag! is undoubtedly one of the best comedy anime ever written in history of anime. The show is packed with lots of comedy, unique written character and last of all cute girls doing cute things. Every episode of the anime has its own unique charm and will certainly make you laugh to death. It has romance and harem on it but that’s just a side dish of the show. The only con I could think about this anime is, it doesn’t have season 2.

Fate/Stay night Unlimited Blade Works

“To win, but not to destroy; to conquer, but not to humiliate: that is what true conquest is!”

To put everything bluntly this anime is truly a masterpiece. The animation is god tier (Kudos to UFOTABLE on doing the animation and they also did Kimetsu no Yaiba). The story is very unique and the characters of the story are very well written compare to other anime. One reason what I like about this anime is the story is very straight forward and how good the dialogues of each character are and how they stand to their own ideology.

Re:Zero

“All I do is talk a big game, and make myself sound like a big shot, when I can’t do anything! I never do anything yet I can complain like a pro. Who do I think I am?! It’s amazing that I can live like this and not feel ashamed!”

At first I thought Re:Zero was like the same Isekai anime where our male character is transported to another world and gain enormous strength then slay the demon lord but I was wrong. Rezero gives you a twist with a strong character development along the way which typical Isekai anime doesn’t have.

Code Geass: Lelouch of the Rebellion

“You cant change the world without getting your hands dirty.”
– Lelouch Vi Britannia

Code Geass isn't your typical anime where the male character gets beaten up then gain strength because of friendship nor the male character doesn't have any plot armor. Code Geass is filled with a lot of action, high quality dialogue and most of all good quality visuals.

Code Geass is full of excitement, tension, action and most of all drama. Our main character Lelouch Lamperouge looks like your typical high school student who attends Ashford Academy in the Britannian controlled Area 11 (which is formerly named Japan) but actually he was a prince from Britannia sent when they were young alongside with her sister Nunnally when they were little by his father in order to gain trust from Japan, and in order for them to attack and colonize the country. Lelouch goals are very simple: he wants to kill his father, the Emperor for sending and abandoning him and his crippled sister and discovering the identity of her Mother's murderer.

Lelouch is quiet intelligent high school stud and a master in the art of war however he knows that he is still many years away from executing his plan in order to get revenge to his father until one day he had a faithful encounter with C.C which given him the power of a geass “Power of King”. With it, he can give any person one command that they will obey no matter what. With the power of geass, Lelouch executed his plan to get revenge.

It will give you a great filling having a Comedy-Crime infused movie.

If you love fantasies and science fiction films, this movie is for you. It will give you chills and undeniably excitement as the story unfolds. You will see in this film why some people were judged for being not smart and just someone who understands a thing for what it is. It is a great film as it balances comedy and drama. It will give you straight forward sad truths that not everyone has the same mindset as what you have. Tom Hanks did an incredible job portraying the role.

2 SHUTTER ISLAND

“The worst part of holding the memories is not the pain. It’s the loneliness of it. Memories need to be shared.”

-Lois Lowry

Imagine a world without war, hunger, and poverty. A place without hatred, pain, and suffering where everyone is equal and not pressured by anything. A place where no one lies and everything seems to be easy.

That world exists on this movie, even though everything is forgotten, there is a single person who remembers it all, he is the giver, he is tasked to pass all the memories to a successor, a Receiver, not all successor can bear all the painful memories.

This movie is recommended because it depicts the situation we’ve been asking, what a perfect world looks like? Is it really perfect? What are the consequences in order to achieve this? Would you rather keep all the memories, good and bad? or keep living in the world where you can’t feel anything?

The Movie is so good that it will gave you a lot of realizations in life you will be left speechless and question the life we are living right now.

We recommend this series not just because of its interesting story but because of the actors who've been delivering their lines naturally. “Welcome to the real world! It sucks – you’re going to love it.”

— Monica Gellar

We recommend Friends to everyone especially for those college students who will soon reach out and seek outside the reality of life after they graduate. Friends is a series where everyone can relate, it is not overly dramatic unlike the other series but it shows that whatever is happening in your life, it is a part of a much greater plan for you. The fact that Friends stayed for 10 seasons is enough proof that most of the viewers relates to the story of this series.

Aside from its jokes and lines that really highlights the whole series, Friends is more about a group of individuals that shows the reality of life in the midlife in 20's. From the point that Monica introduced Rachel to the series of unfortunate events like being poor and having part of a not sustainable jobs, it is pretty much depiction of quarter life crisis.

The constant change of the main character's jobs is a manifestation of the crisis of young individuals looking for decent career. In the series only Joey's career remained consistent as those in art majors insists that love for the arts cannot be traded for any amount of money.

Overall, this series is really a must watch series as it celebrates its 25'th anniversary since its first season in 1994, this show is a well-loved series by fans, we hope that you'll soon love this series!

HENERAL LUNA

“May mas malaki tayong kalaban sa mga Amerikano–ang ating sarili.”

Heneral Luna is one of a kind film, it tell us more about what happened to Heneral Luna and what happened to the Philippines after the Treaty of Paris. The film is packed with a lot of action scene and at the same time it gives you knowledge about our history. The cinematography of the movie is astounding. There are some downs of the movie and disappointments but overall its very good film and I wont be embarrassed if I call it the best Filipino movie of all the time because of how good it is.

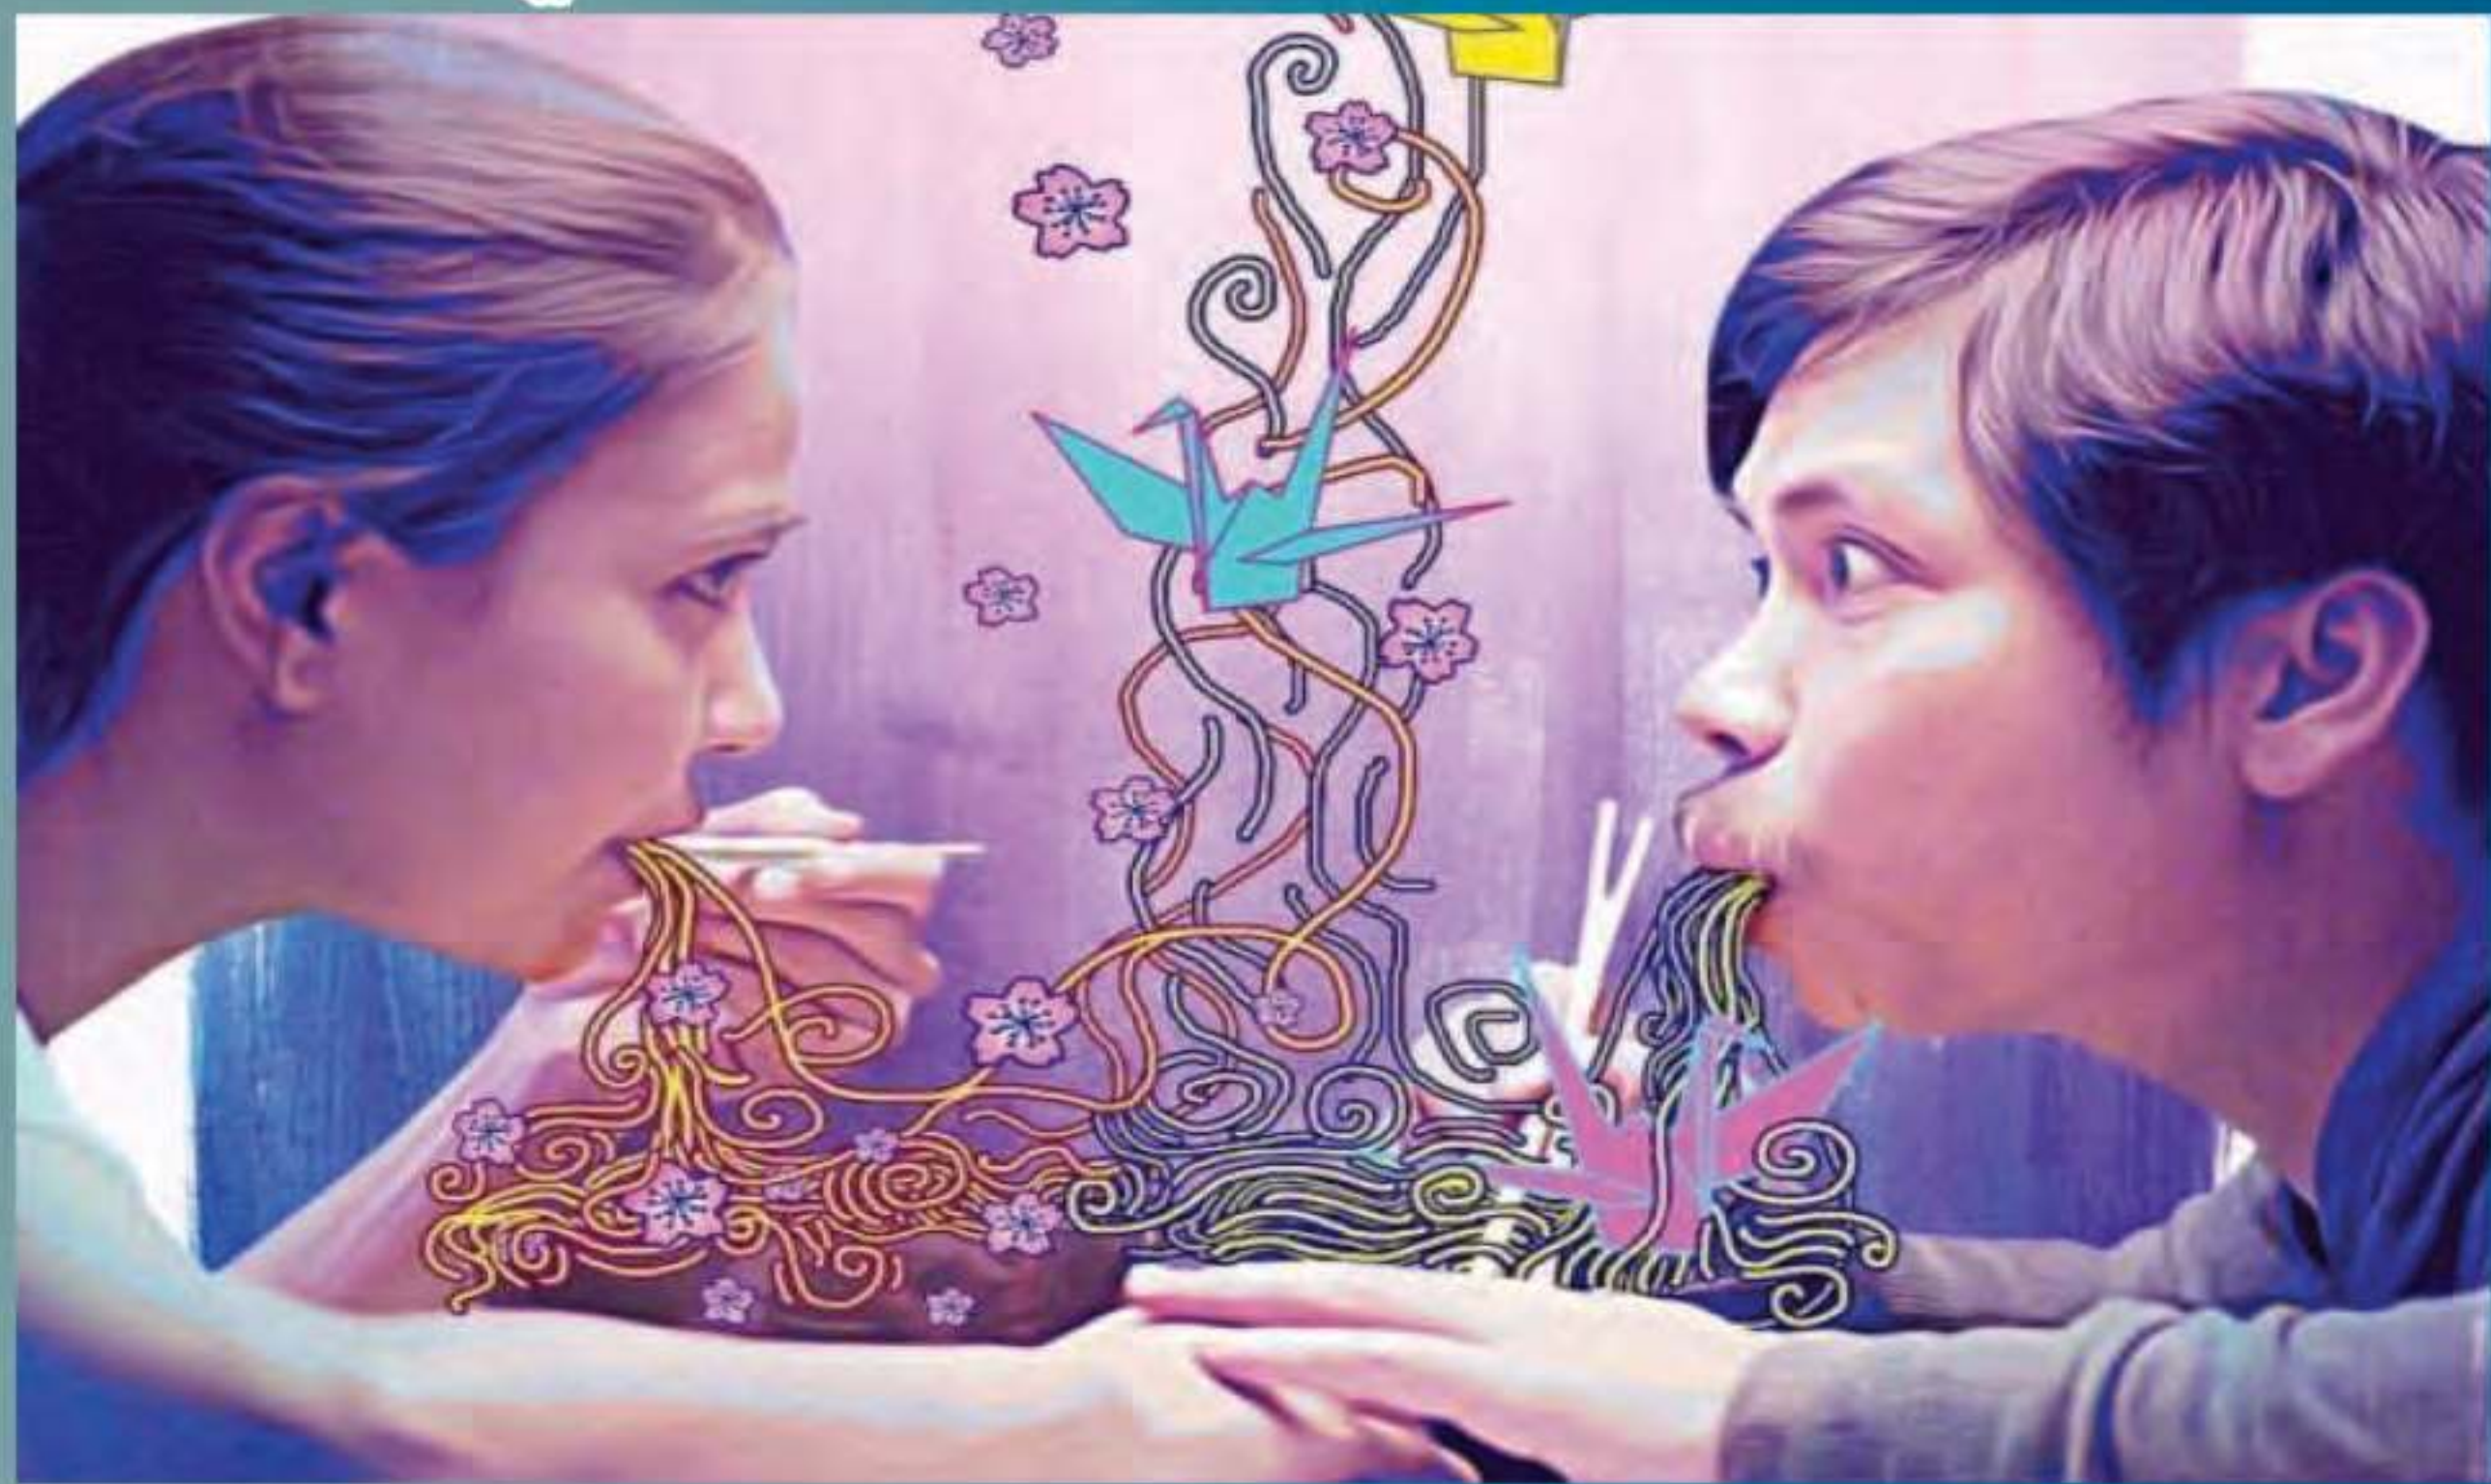

One good thing why I consider the film as the best movie of all the time is how they portray each character, they didn't portray Pres. Emilio Aguinaldo as the bad guy (neither good) but they let us think whether he is a good guy or not, the film isn't being a prejudice to its own character nor they didn't side whether who is good nor not. They cast the actors perfectly like Heneral Luna, I applaud John Arcilla (the actor who played Heneral Luna) for portraying the two sides of Heneral Luna perfectly.

The film brings back the patriotism you lost along the way of your life. Everything is almost perfect. If you're a history fan or just a regular movie fan then this film is for you!

Angels Last Mission: Love

The content is impressive, and the theme is well executed. The incomparable acting skills of the actors and actresses need to be commended. ## While You Were Sleeping

“If you can see the future in a dream. What will happen then? That future, that time, that fate, can it be changed?”

Why do we recommend While You Were Sleeping? It was well sketched, and the cast was well utilized as well. The main love couple display an endearing on-screen romantic ride that never misunderstands. The plot is well narrated. The twist is modified in an interesting bind by explaining how the characters sharing associated dreams each have saved each other's lives,

8

The Beauty Inside

“Going through this life is the first time for all of us anyway”.

Why do we recommend The Beauty Inside? Recent-ish penchant for rom-coms with a distinct twist of fantasy. It is well-rounded, and well-executed collection of rom-com tropes, thanks to the two leading characters they made it possible. This drama is very cute, and when it is angsty, the angst doesn't actually last very long. The splash of first love feels took a whip on the story, the chemistry is very impressive. The unconditional friendship as well added a factor on the drama series.

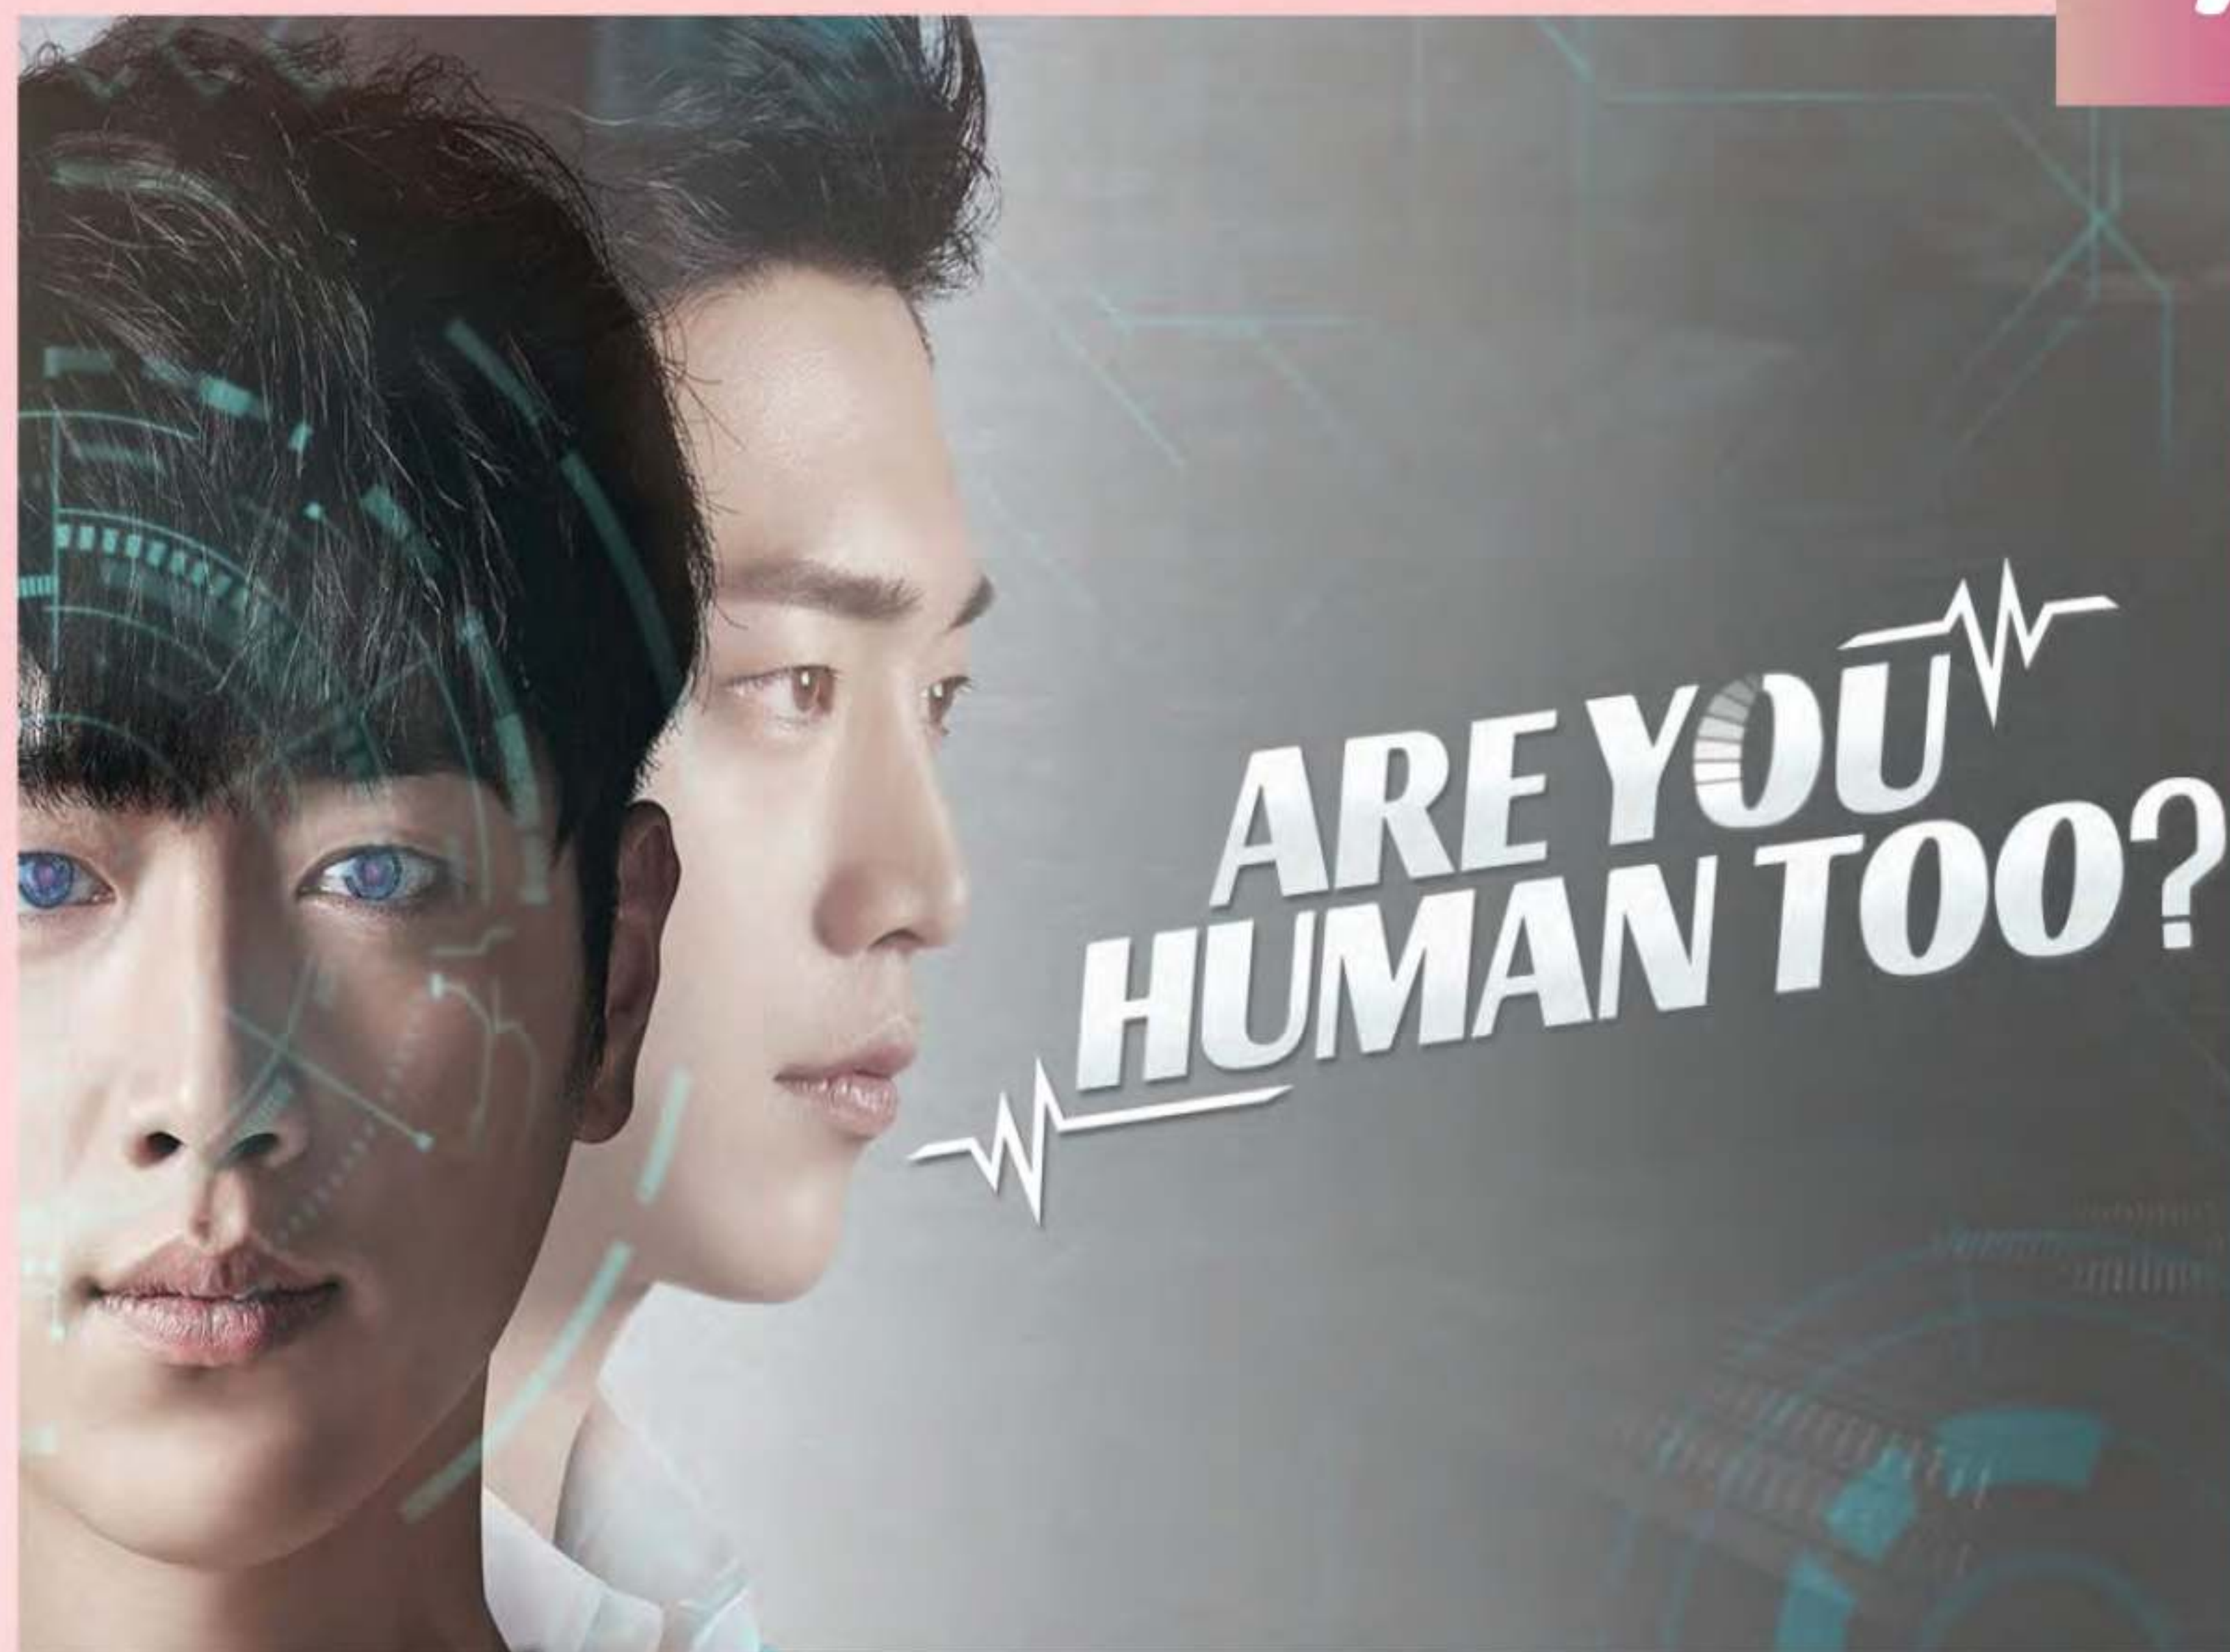

7

Are you Human?

“The rule is to hug you if you cry.”

Why do we recommend ‘Are You Human?’? This drama is dramatic and fantastical, yet it did not go overboard. The set-up though is futuristic and there’s a melo backstory on the top of it. All the CGI looks legit, everything was polished and did not have any burden of having to showcase a whole lot of technology. The lead actor played his role very well as the human Namshin and the robot Namshin, he was able to portray both emotions needed accurately as a human and robot. The drama would never let you down and would ever make you tear up.

6

Remember: War of the Sons

“If I give up on myself, the world gives up on me”.

Why do we recommend Remember: War of Sons? It explores the dark side that lurks within the less than the legal dealings of the judicial system. He has a special ability called photographic memory. This series show how corrupts would go far to keep their power.

And it also shows how wronged will go to fight against them for justice. If you can endure some misery and a frustrating cycle of bad judgments, Remember: War of the Son is an idyllic watch for any fan of legal dramas or chaebol corruption. While the drama draws in some elements with its tendency to prolong disputes, the ultimate justice served in the end is resounding enough to say the struggle worth it.

Good Doctor

“Do you think a person’s feeling is the same as skin? Do you think it’s obvious as getting bruised or bleeding?”

Why do we recommend Good Doctor? It is about a man with autism who is a brilliant surgeon but has emotional development of a child. He finds it hard to succeed as a doctor and to fit in with his colleagues at work. It is a very heartwarming drama that highlights one man’s road to achieve his goals. The drama never felt too heavy and adds in some humor to compliment the story.

4

Who are you: School 2015

“Only a friend’s hand can pull out a thorn that’s deep inside a heart.”

Why do we recommend Who Are You: School: 2015? A series that is youthful, fresh and with just the right amount of angst. It was builds up suspense, tension and curiosity with faultless timing. The idea of twins is unique. With that, they could show two different feels or lifestyles that students lead: popular/outgoing vs bullies/quiet.

3

About Time

“It’s an illusion. The feeling of that woman’s song making my heart pound and the feeling that time will stop forever. If I don’t run away and face it, it is a burn that I can prove”.

Why do we recommend About Time? It is a love that won over fate, the “essence” of fantasy romance. It’s a series that ponders over the meaning of life. The chemistry of the actors was unexpected, and it turned out well. They managed to make a really beautiful love story with a nerve-wrecking plot.

Memories of Alhambra

“Every story begins with a memory”.

Why do we recommend Memories of Alhambra? It is not your typical kdrama that aims for an aesthetic view. It levels up from the usual romance-comedy fare and logs into the world of augmented reality (AR) game. At first, you’ll find it confusing as you go on, it’s so gripping that you can’t help but keep going. Everything is magical, it makes the story unique and the visual aren’t ordinary.

Hotel del Luna

“Love can be medicine, or it can be poison. It is what it is”.

Why we recommend Hotel del Luna? It is not because IU stars on this drama, but the blend of genres made it possible to become a hit. Romance, comedy, fantasy and horror unexpectedly blended on this drama series. The show also has a touch of historical period which did not contradict the modern-day Korea. The minor characters' storylines will be notable as well and worth the tears. IU's outfits will wow you since she nailed it all. There will be few jump scares from ghosts that aren't suitable for faint-hearted people. All in all, the storyline is unpredictable.

This series imparts a valuable lesson in life such as forgiving people who have offended you or hurt you, letting go of the painful experiences and moving on for a better tomorrow. Back stories really made this drama more interesting and amazing.
